

Matjaž Špilak became a member of the management board of UniCredit Banka Slovenija d.d.

While Matjaž Špilak was appointed to the position of COO on September 1, 2024, his official appointment as a member of the management board came into effect at the end of the previous month, on the day of obtaining the permission of the European Central Bank to perform the function.

In his role, he succeeded Tsvetelin Minchev, who continues his professional career within the UniCredit Group.

In the management of UniCredit Banka Slovenija d.d. there are currently four other members of the board in addition to the president of the board, Lorenzo Ramajola. More at: <https://www.unicreditbank.si/si/onas/banka/organizativska-struktura.html>

Matjaž Špilak joined UniCredit Bank in 2007 as a technologist. Since 2012, he has been acquiring knowledge and extensive management experience in management positions within the IT and digital channels departments. He obtained a university degree in political science and a master of science in the field of information management sciences at the Faculty of Economics.